THE New York World says that Mr. Henry James, jr., has for the present abandoned novel-writing for dramatic composition. He has rewritten "Daisy Miller" into a play which is very highly spoken of by those who have heard it read, and he is now occupied on a new drama which he expects to complete at an early day.

amendment is to be pushed through the Senate in some shape soon, so that it may reach the House, where Sunset Cox, Proctor Knott and the other congressional humsrists can make it the target for their shafts of wit. In which case the women will have some wit to expend on Proctor Knott as the single-speech member of the House, and upon Cox as the "clown of the National Circus." Woman's suffrage is not to be impeded by mere mountebank business. It will be an accomplished fact some day, and soon, because it is a measure of too long delayed ustice to a large and influential body of cit-

THE FREIHEIT AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

LITTLE ROCK, May 17. — Major L. H. Mangum, commissioner for the distribution of government rations in the overflowed district of this State, says that he distribu 450,000 rations altogether; that the government aid was sufficient to supply all in actual need up to the 10th instant, and that the crop prospects along the line of the flood in this Sinte were never better. The rations furnished kept the laborers from emigrating. The destruction of cattle, hogs and other The destruction of cattle, hogs and other animals by the flood and hunger was general, but the number of horses and mules lost has not seriously interfered with the CINCINNATI, May 17.—The afternoon concert of the May Festival was attended by an andience of nearly 4000. Like all afternoon concerts, it was made up of a light programme, introducing Materna, Cary, Remmeriz and Miss Cranch. Materna sang "O. Susanna, Non Vien," from the Marriage of Figure, and a due with Miss Cary by Mendelssohn. Miss Cary sang "Vio Che Sapete," and Remmertz "Non Piu Sapete," and Remmertz "Non Piu Andrai," both from the Marriage of Pigaro, Miss Cranch sang Bruch's "Penelope Weaving a Garment." All the soloists were received with warm approval, particularly Materna and Cary. The chief feature of the programme was Beet oven's seventh symptony, which was superbly rendered by the orchestra. At night the weather was delightful and the house was filled with a brilliant audience, numbering more than 5000. The entire evening was de-Little Rock Democrat: "The colored people terns, Cary, Miss Hetlich, Miss Kopp, Canhave purchased a lot in west Forrest City, didus, Whitney, Remmertz and Sulliven ap-
